THE 1975 TROIAN

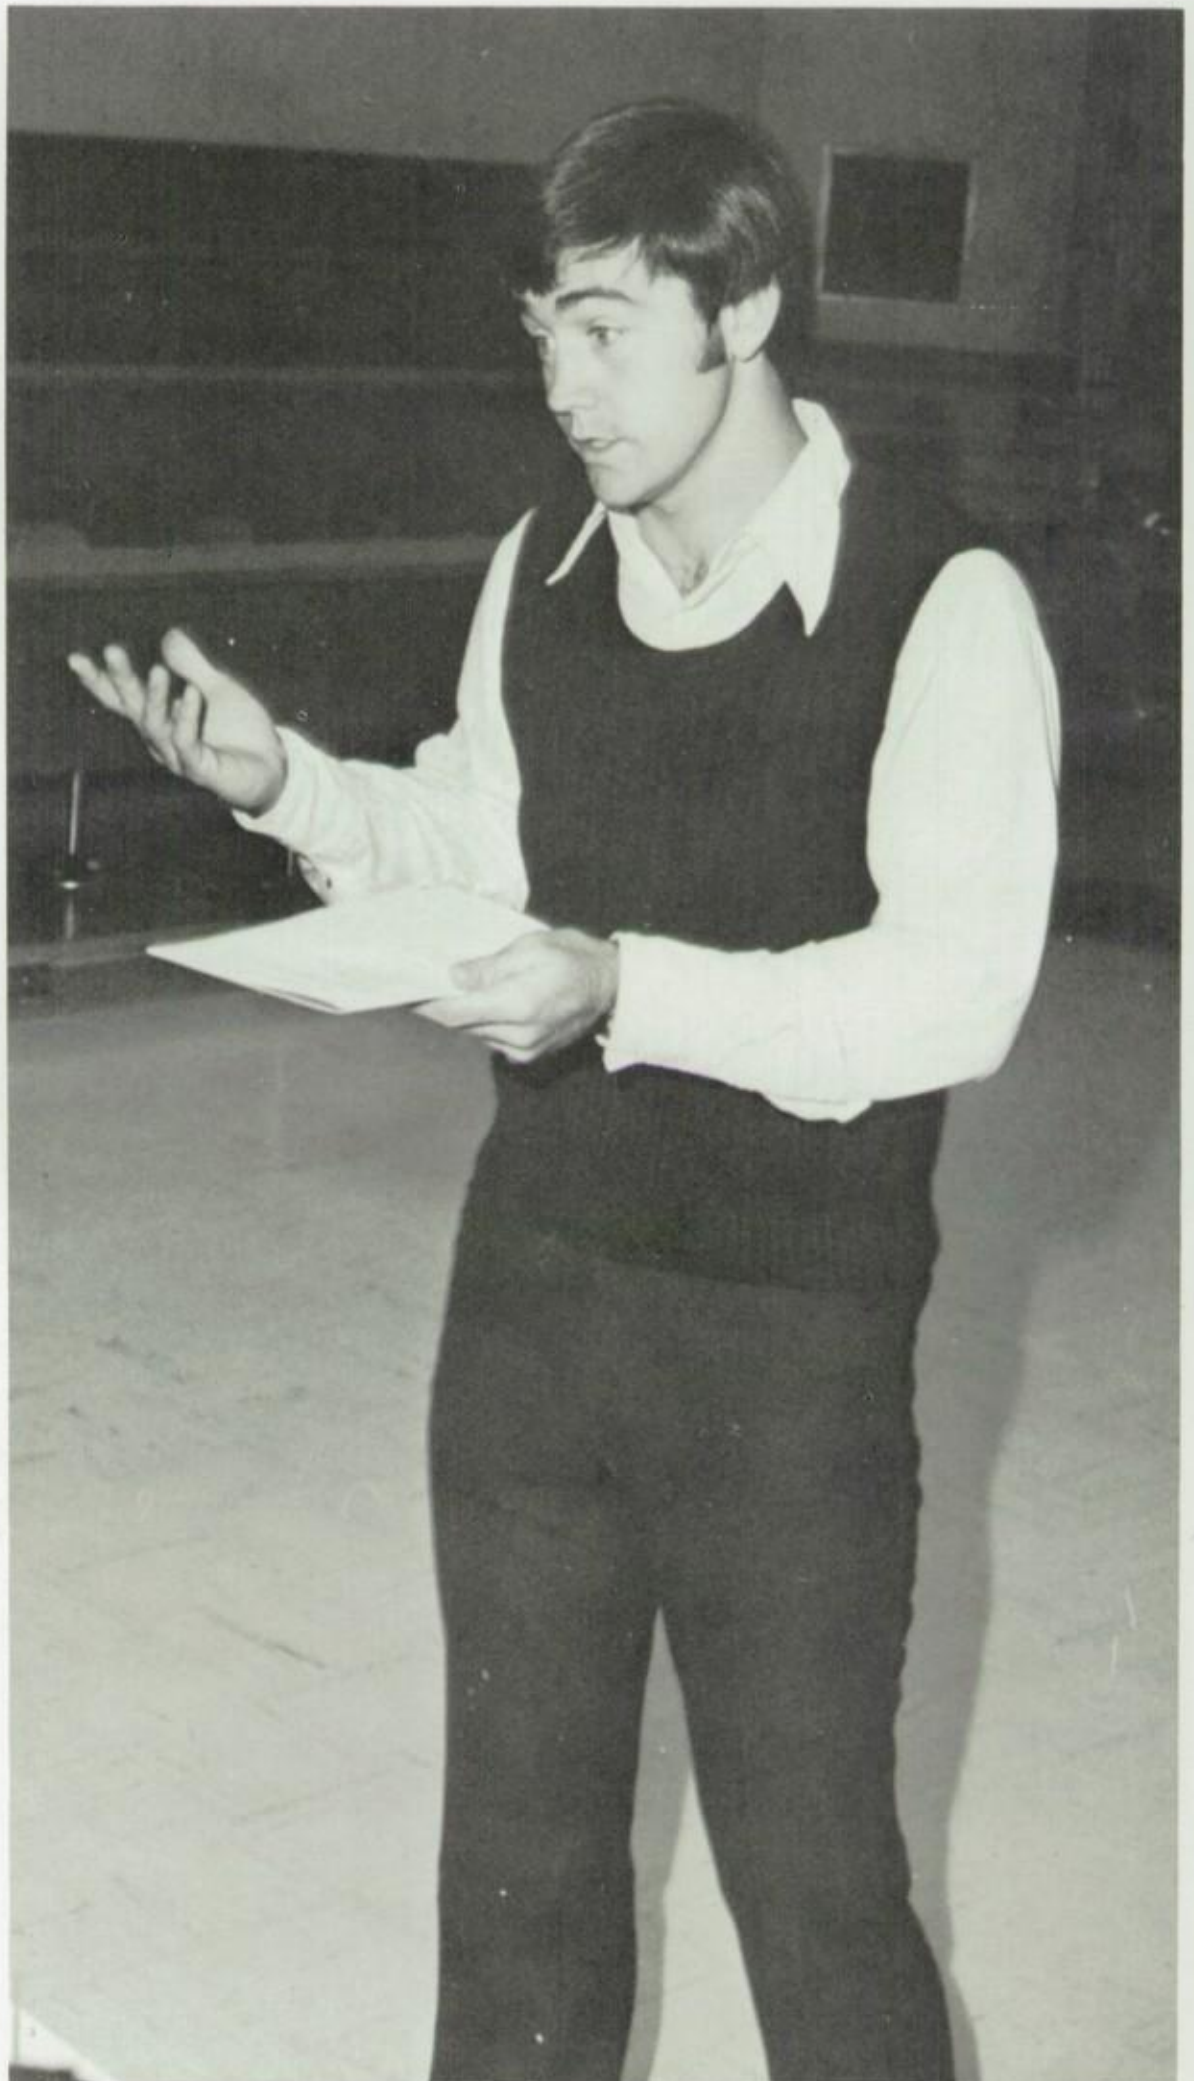

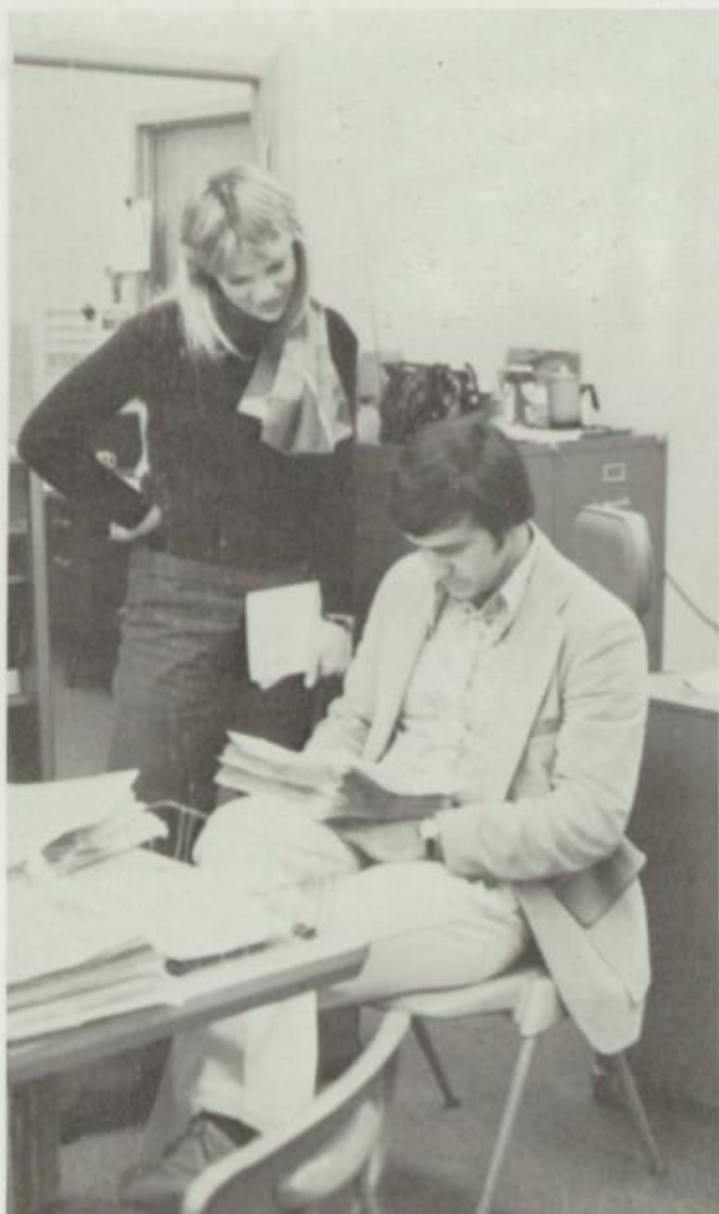

Greenville High School
Greenville, Pennsylvania
Volume 17

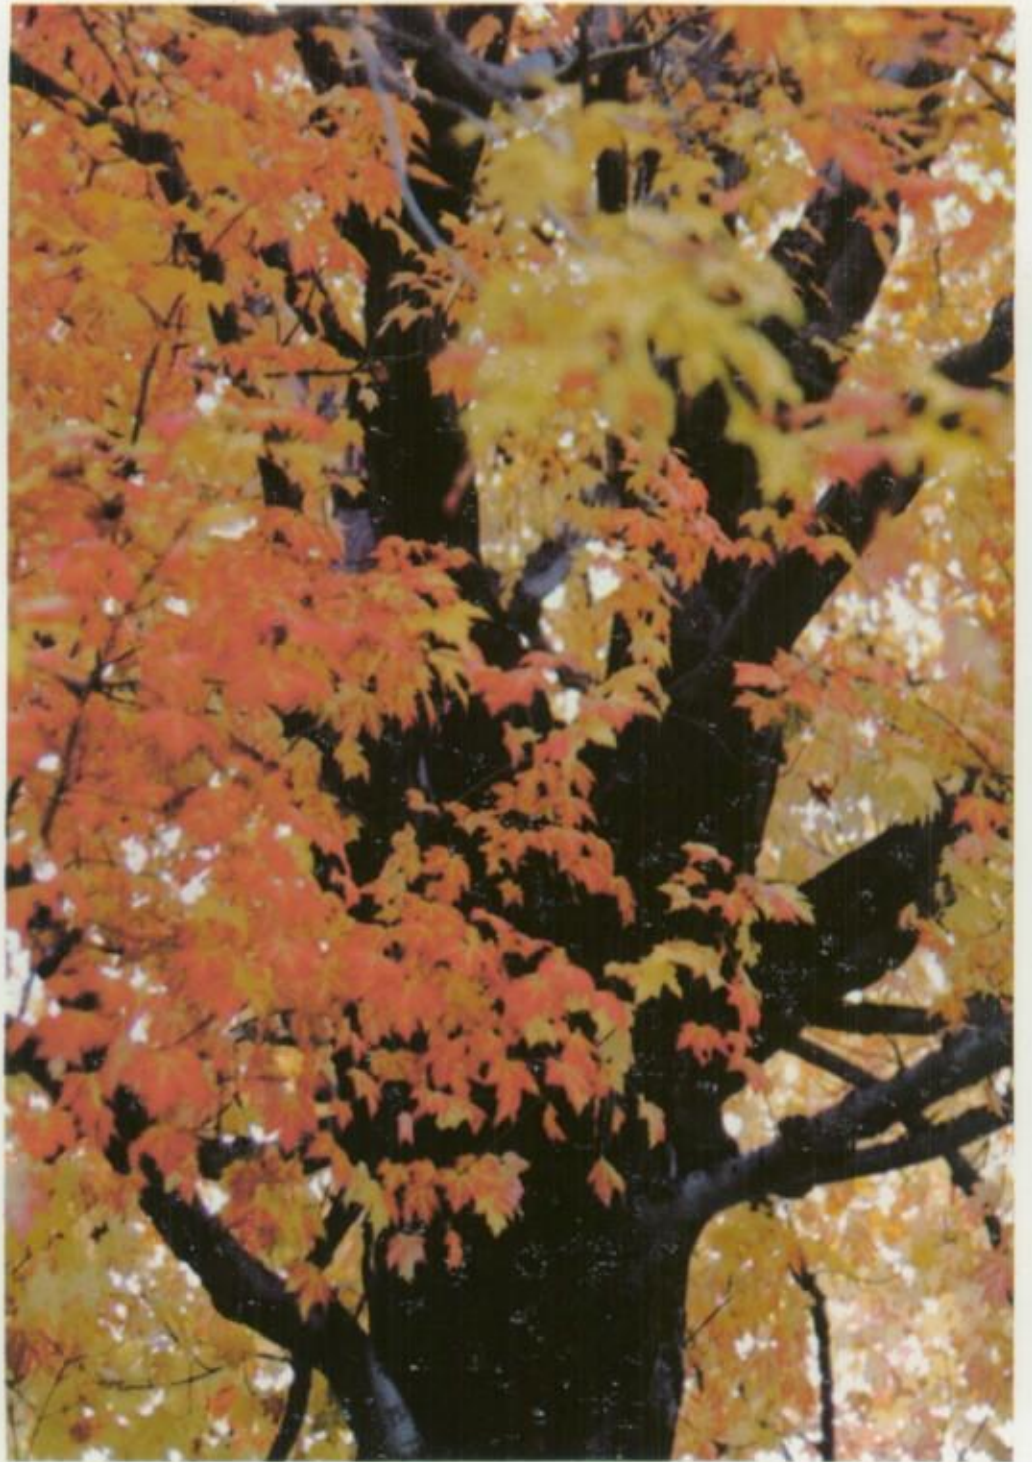

“He is the leader, he is the innovater, he is the one who goes the extra mile when others grow weak.”

It's hard to define what special qualities separate the extraordinary individual from his contemporaries. All are capable, all are dedicated and concerned, but the special one stands out from the crowd. He is the leader, he is the innovater, he is the one who goes the extra mile when the others grow weak. He is the one others look to in a crisis, for he has planned ahead and knows what course he will take. He is capable and leads by command, but he also commands respect and leads by the example he sets.

The 1975 TROIAN is dedicated to a person who has such qualities. His unselfish devotion to Greenville High School and its students serves as a shining example and inspiration to all he has come in contact with. Therefore, we dedicate the 1975 TROIAN to Mr. Fred Kiser.

Memories light the corners of my mind
Misty water color memories of the way we were Scattered pictures of the smiles we left behind
Smiles we gave to one another for the way we were
Can it be that it was all so simple then
Or has time rewritten every line

Days
that once seemed endless are quickly coming to a close,
thrusting me into the future.
Ideals
that I have formed in the past four years
create a path for me to follow
to make the most out of my life.
High School
— a time to remember — brings to mind reflections of times good and bad,

some tears and some laughter,
hopeless frustration and proud accomplishments,
true boredom and stimulating learning,
new friends and old.
It is these fondly treasured memories
— a magnificent combination of experiences that have formed me into the individual that I am — ready to take on our complex and beautiful world with all the strength and courage I possess.

Stairway to Heaven Provides Theme for Junior-Senior Prom

After many hours of hard laboring, our Junior Class constructed a magnificent prom as a farewell gift to the Seniors. Through many hours of tedious chalking, cutting, glittering, hammering, and folding, we were able to create our own heaven within the walls of GHS. The murals were fantastic drawings ranging from Michelangelo to Yes. The happiest moment for many of us was putting that last step together and watching the staircase stand upright for longer than five minutes. Skip Brazelton and Elaine Sundback supervised one of the best displays of creativity ever seen in the GHS gym.

Annie, Harvey Highlight Dramas

Dimming lights and rising overture signaled the end of long months of expectation as the class of '75 presented the latest all-school musical, Annie Get You Gun.

Set in the late 1800's, the play deals with the trials of young Annie Oakley and her rise from mountain waif to queen of the traveling wild west shows. In the process of gaining fame and fortune, Annie (Sharon Boykan) falls in love with her sharp-shooting rival Frank Butler (Tim McDonald), but their professional rivalry interferes until the final scene.

A production of this scope takes a great deal of organization, and plaudits must go to the following advisors for long hours and outstanding effort: Mrs. Louden, drama; Mr. Young, vocal music; Mr. Anderson, instrumental music; Mr. Drennen, stage design; Mrs. Mary Ann Brown, dance choreography; Mrs. Mary Kay Miller, costumes; and Miss Gutowski, properties.

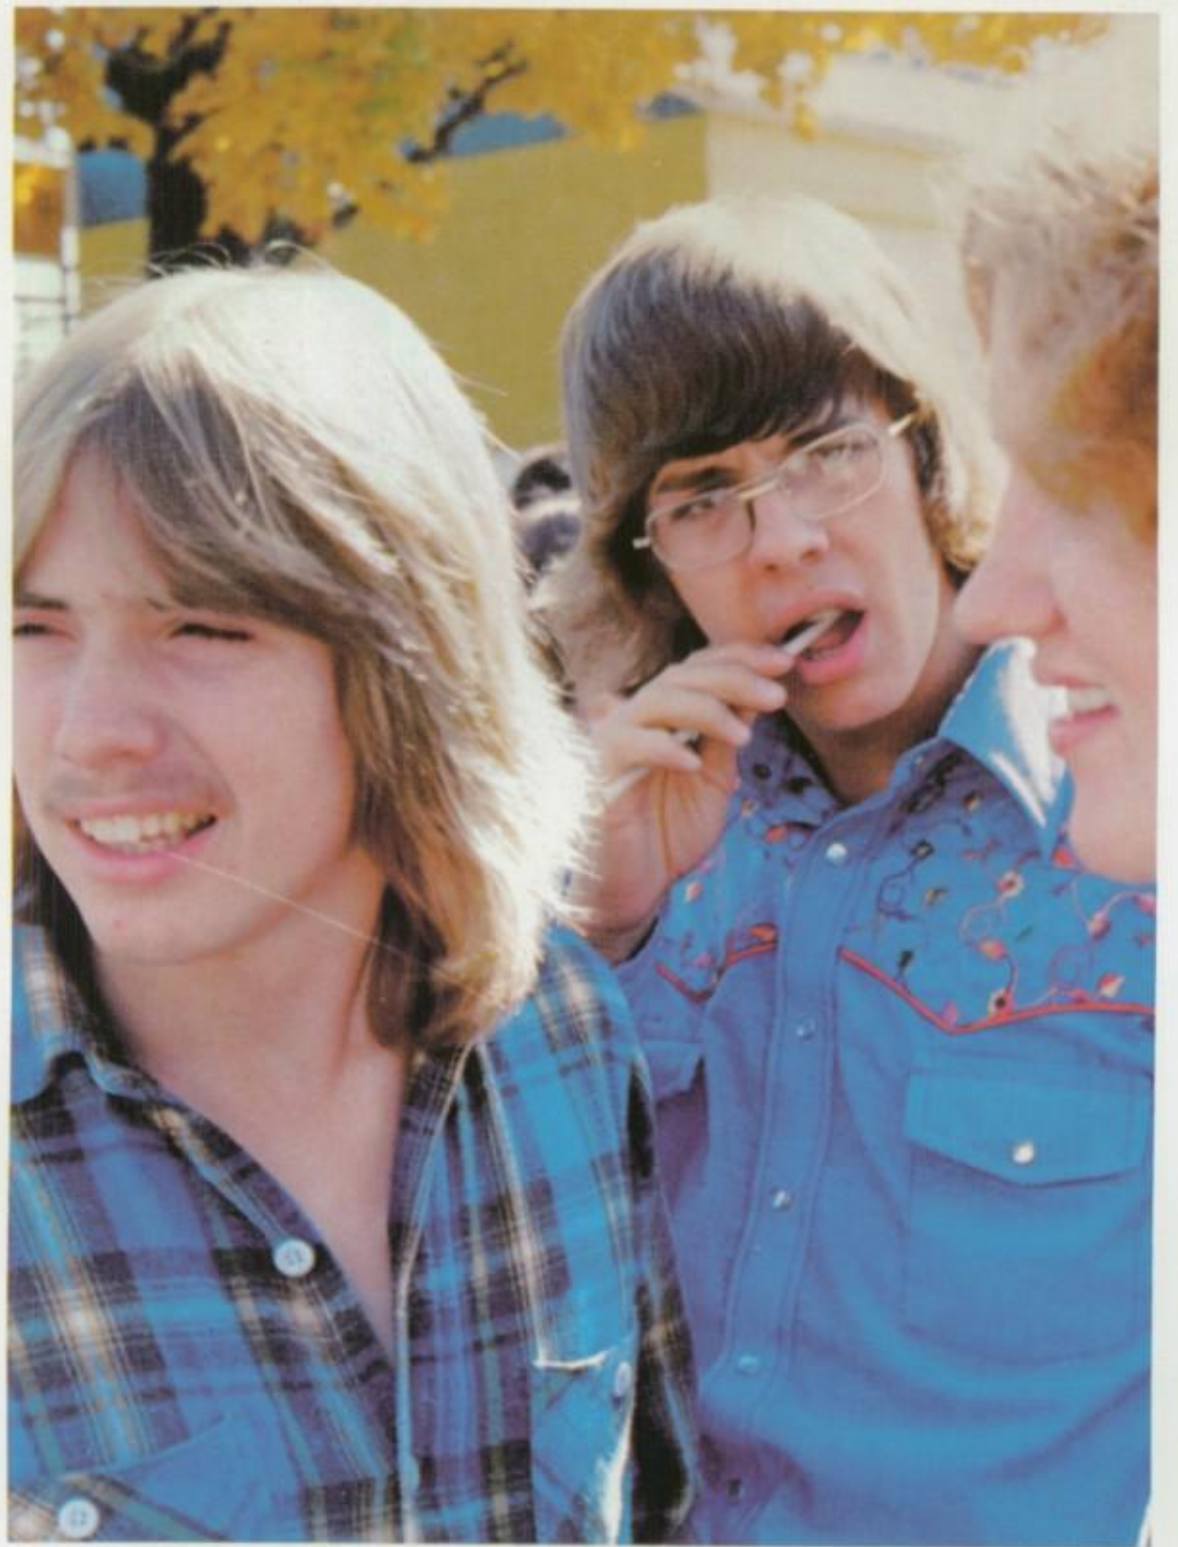

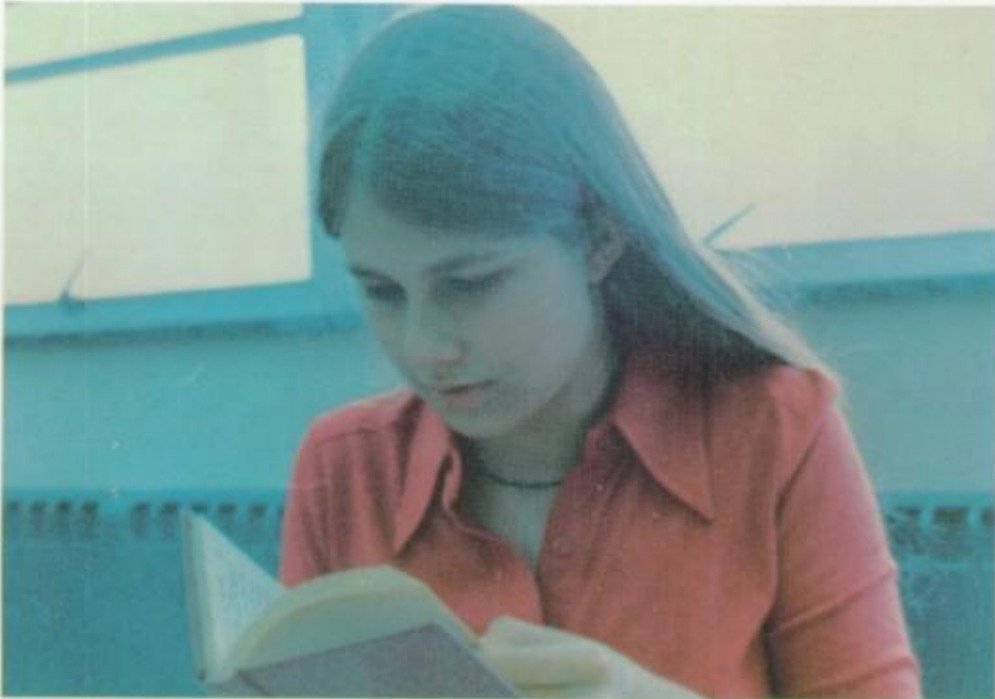

A new director and a veteran cast combined to bring an invisible rabbit to life as the Senior Class presented Mary Chase's play, Harvey. Howard Yagur as Elwood P. Dowd, Karen Bovard as Veta Louise Simmons, and Lynn Simons as her daughter Myrtle starred in the production, directed by Mr. James Petuch. Elwood's family fears for his sanity when he proclaims his affection for a giant rabbit that no one can see, and the situation becomes serious when the Simmons' social status is threatened. Elwood, and Harvey, triumph in the end.

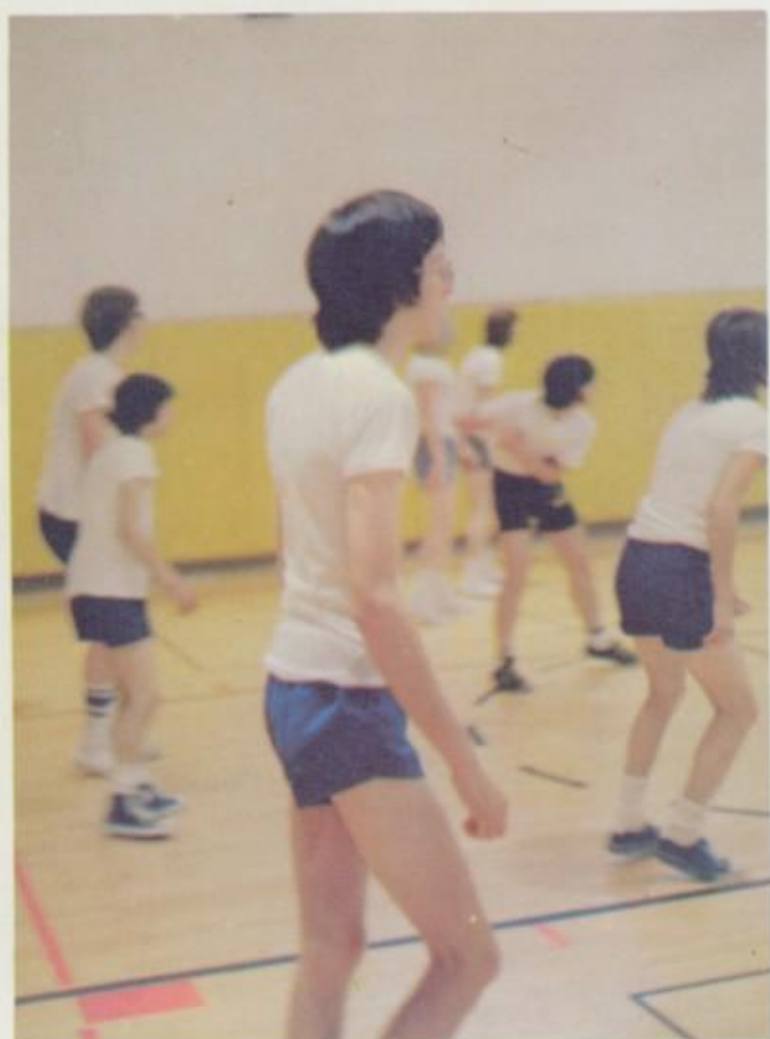

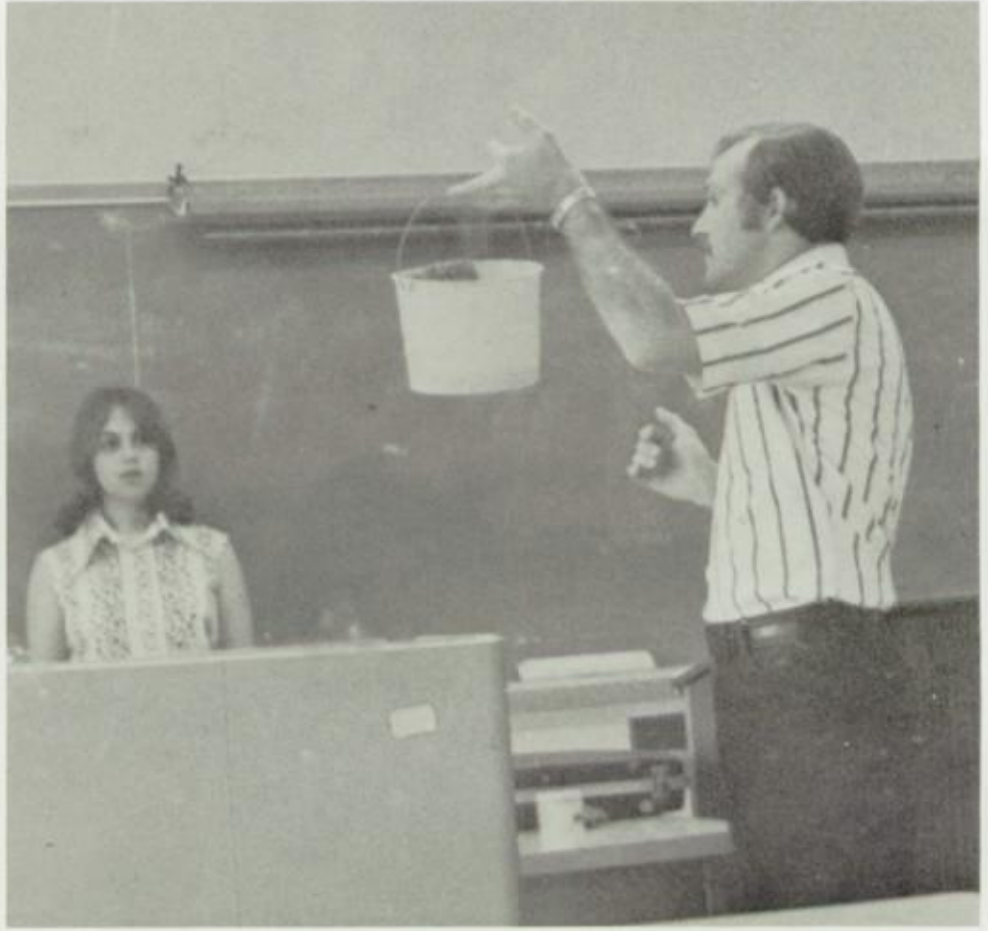

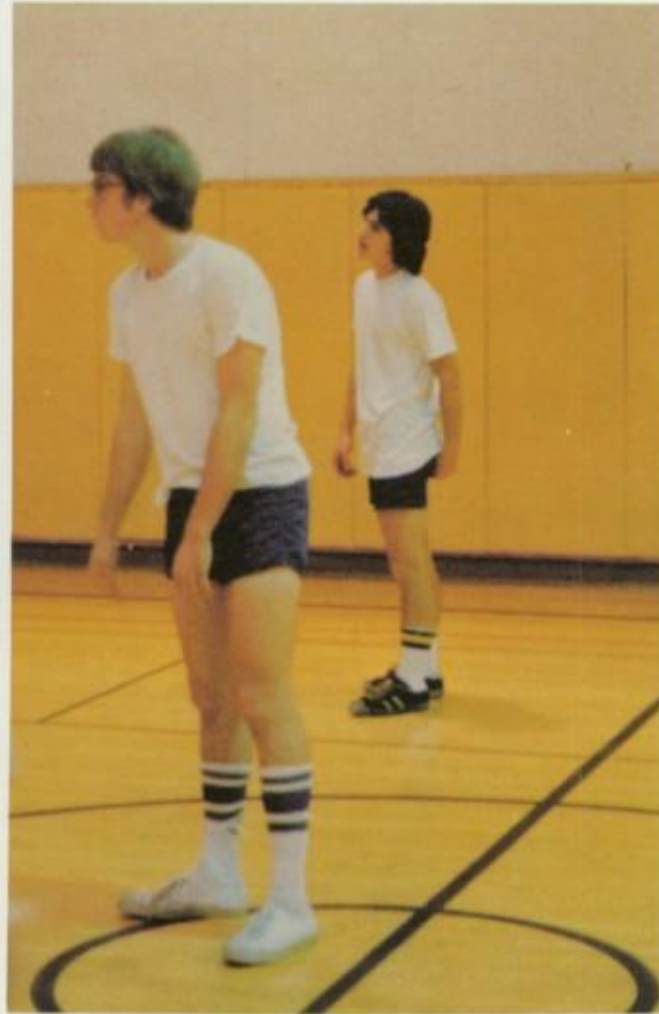

GETTING THE MOST OF THE BEST TO THE GREATEST NUMBER OF PEOPLE FOR THE LEAST.

ACTIVITIES

Freshman — Sophomore Homemaker's Club

The objective of the Homemaker's Clubs is to help their members develop skills in the areas of cooking, sewing, and domestic crafts. They sponsor guest speakers at their meetings and do independent projects. The president of the Junior — Senior club is Missy Rea, and the Freshman — Sophomore president is Sandy Guerrini.

Led by lone officer Bill Fonner, who is also this year's top player, the Chess Club had a successful season of intra — and intermural matches. Their success was even greater when all the chess pieces were found.

In addition to helping Mr. Fagley in the library, the Library Club sponsors an annual Sundae Monday Party and does community service projects. The president is Mary McDonald.

Action Club

Helping others is the credo of the Junior — Senior Action Club. As one of GHS's busiest groups, the Action Club performs many services in the school and in the community. They sponsored Slave Days early in the year and regularly ushered at plays, commencement, and vespers. Their president is Kathy Forland.

As did many other organizations, the Art Club sponsored a sock hop this year and in true creative spirit they decorated the cafeteria with Christmas murals and engaged in other artistic endeavors. Annually the Art Club takes a spring trip to a place of aesthetic interest. The president is Kirste Carlson.

As its name suggests, the Health Careers Club is interested in nursing, medicine, and lab technology. They have professional guests come to their meetings to talk about futures in the healing arts. The president is Missy Rea.

The Thespians honor excellence in the dramatic arts. Members gain admittance by earning points working on class plays and musicals. Every other year the group sponsors a night of one-act plays presented by the members. The 1974-75 president is Karen Bovard.

A C+ average in Biology and a love of formaldehyde are the only requirements for membership in the Bios Club. After years of inactivity, the club sponsored the Sadie Hawkins Dance and thought up unique poses for the group picture.

Troy Times

PYEA

Plagued by the lack of journalism class, the Troy Times got off to a rocky start but settled down to producing an issue every six weeks. Editor Mary Carol Forbes and Assistant Editor Sue Chess raised the paper above last year's one-edition production.

Interest in education as a career is fostered by the Pennsylvania Youth Education Association. Led by President Mary Jo Margaree, members sold mums at Homecoming and sponsored Student Teacher Day and tutoring programs.

The Varsity G Club exists to honor GHS lettermen. Members sell candy to buy jackets for new members, while a Christmas Dinner Dance and Father-Son Banquet have become fixtures on the VG social calendar.

Under President Bill Rickert, the Student Council took an expanded role in school affairs. They scheduled sock hops and social events, and built the marquee in front of the school.

The National Honor Society recognizes outstanding students who also rate well in areas of leadership, service, and character. Bill Rickert was the president this year.

Language day, volleyball matches, and meetings highlight the Spanish Club year. The group also operated the coat check at winter athletic events and explored customs of the Hispanic peoples. This year's president is Sharon Christman.

The Marseilles and winter activities keynote Le Cercle Francais. President Tina Cianci leads members through the joys of the French lifestyle.

The German Club sponsors a monthly meeting, Oktoberfest, a German dinner, and a float for the Christmas parade. Members also go Christmas caroling and bake German Christmas cookies during the Yule season. Skills are tested in the A.A.T.G. contest. President is Katie Mechenbier.

Christmas banquet and volleyball games head the Latin Club calendar. President Doug Ramsey directed the group toward a defense of their Language Day title.

Ninth Grade Chorus

The 109-member ninth grade chorus is a group that appears several times a year at various assemblies and concerts. With a program ranging from modern pop to religious styled songs, they enthusiastically provide an entertaining repertoire for each audience.

Pleasing its audiences with varied melodies, the twenty-voice girl's chorus is always a welcome group at assemblies and concerts.

The men's glee club contributes to the choral program with strong, well-blended singing. It is a forty-member group of young men from the choir.

The marching band, under the direction of Mr. Anderson, entertained several enthusiastic audiences at football games and parades. After much diligent practice, the group's highly successful programs ranged from ragtime to rock and gained them a much-deserved recognition.

Tom Horth, the marching band's announcer, preluded each half-time show with bona-fide descriptions of the band's program.

As the drum majorette for the band, Dawn Cianci responsibly led the band with marching and dancing on the field and at parades.

Concert Band

When Marching Band is concluded, Concert Band is quickly revived from the previous year with hard work and enthusiasm. The Concert Band not only fills up the stage with its 104 members, but it fills the concert auditorium with music from every period of history.

The Pep Band includes basketball — enthusiastic musicians who attend the home games to strike up pep and vigor among the players and fans.

THE 1975 TROIAN STAFF

The 1975 Troian was published by the Wm. J. Keller Co. of Gettysburg, Penna. The copy was printed on Velva Brite paper in Palatino type with Janson — style type for headlines. Professional photography was done by Morgan's Studio of Greenville. Additional photographs were the courtesy of staff photographers Bill Ingersoll and Chris Mathieson, along with Skip Brazelton, Kirste Carlson, Joe Hodge, Tom Horth, Mary Ellen Koller, Elaine Sundback, and Mr. Miller. The poem on page five is by Chris Mathieson; the water-color title page is by Kirste Carlson.

We would like to acknowledge the special efforts of Mr. Donald Shupe, company representative; Mr. & Mrs. Henry Morgan; Mr. Paul Miller, Troian adviser; and Mary Ellen Koller, editor. We would also like to thank Mary Ann Hawes, Ann Simpson, and Marc Todd for helping us get started, and Colleen Bronder, Ann Carley, Tina Cianci, and Roxann Turcic for helping us finish. Extra special recognition goes to Terry Cowan, Marianne Gerdy, Mary McDonald, and Bonnie McIntire; without their tireless efforts all year long there surely would be no book this year.

SPORTS

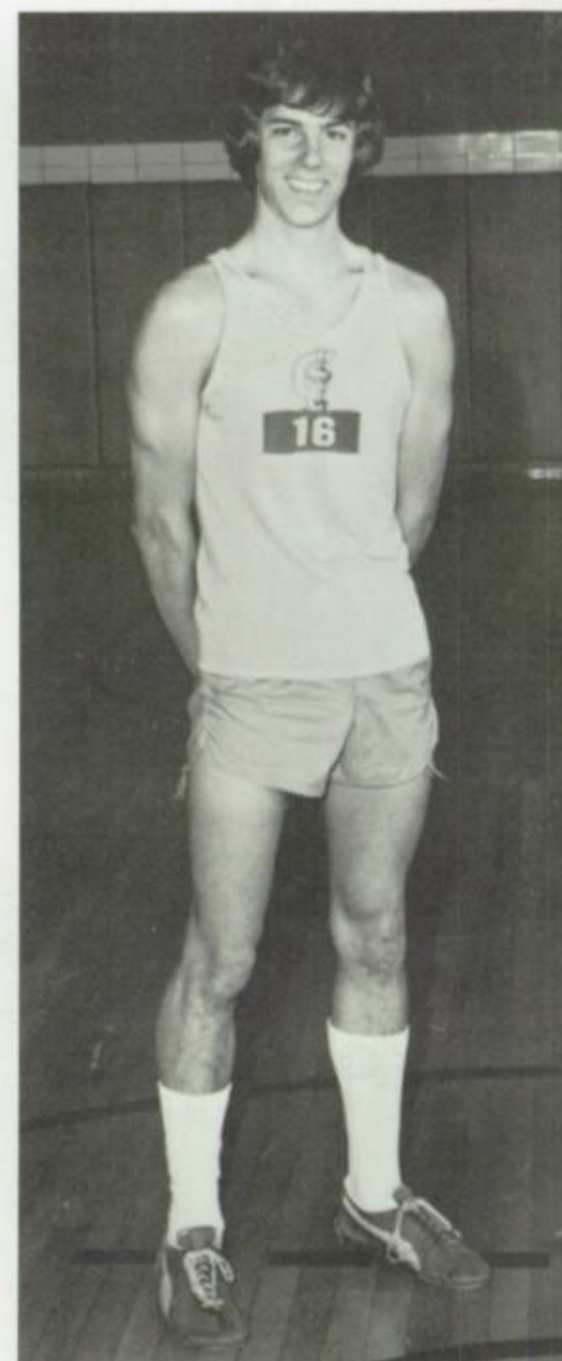

Commodore Conquest Climaxes Cross Country Calendar

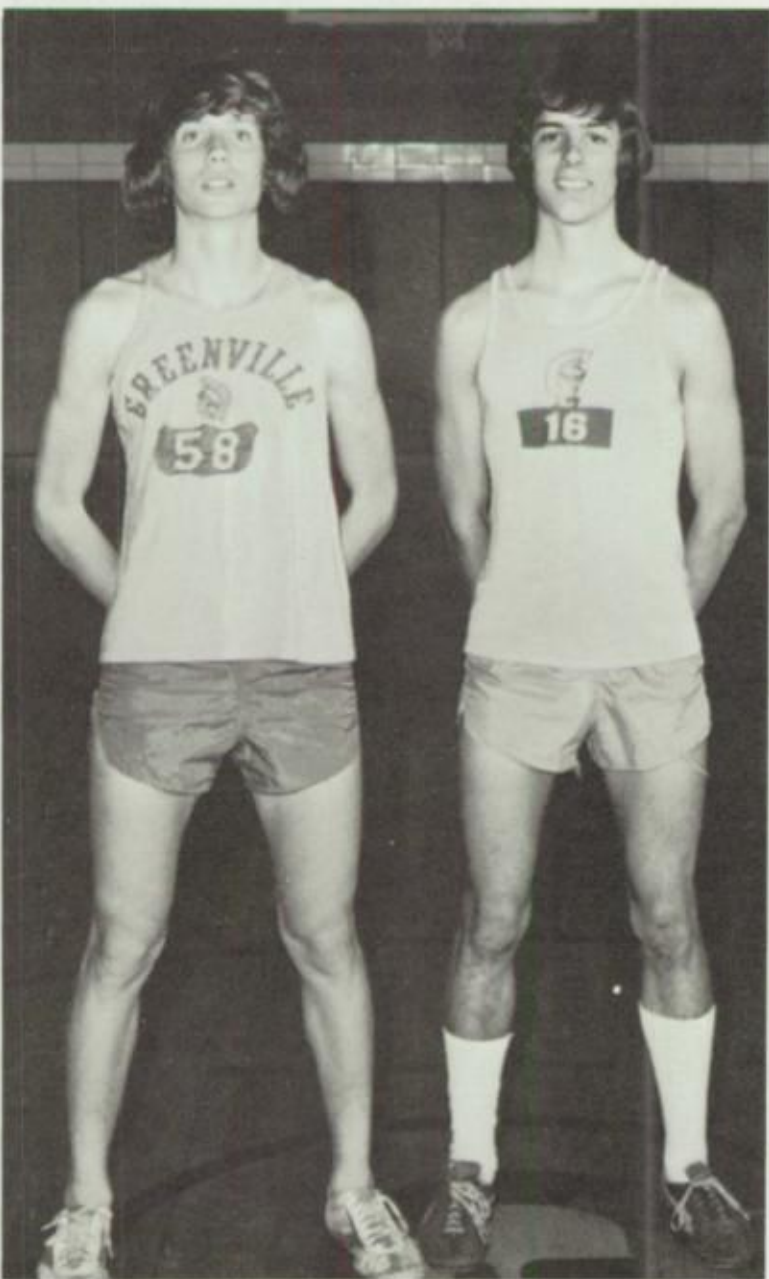

Probably the most individual of all sports, cross country subjects the participant to the hardships of the elements as well as the pain of competition. This year's squad, led by co-captains Dan Emmett (senior) and Mike Smiley (junior), braved extremes from summer sun to autumn fog to post a 6-5-1 season record. Coach Sumner Bemis hopes to better that mark next year, as Emmett and Kevin Lean are the only departing seniors.

Season's record 4-2

The J.V. team had a winning season, although they did suffer a major heartbreaker. After 39 consecutive wins, they were defeated by Meadville. But spirits were mended, and they totaled four wins and two losses, their second loss against Franklin. In the game against Reynolds, the one that really counts, Tim Engstrom caught the winning touchdown pass from Rod Rembold. Tim was the leading pass receiver on the field throughout the season. Rod Rembold and Tab McCullough shared the quarterback duties. Sidy Surano was the leading rusher. The starters were as follows; ends — Tim Engstrom, Gordon Payne, Matt Detelich; tackles — Matt Landfried, Don Lanker, Jay Baker, Bruce Edwards; guards — Jerry Green, Steve Petrarca, Mike Gruber, Dave Bendig; centers — Mike Higbee, Gary Semroc, Tom Trimble, Tom McInturf; quarterbacks — Rod Rembold, Tab McCullough; fullbacks — Jim Anderton, Danny Christy, Tom Baskin; halfbacks — Sidy Surano, Craig Leventry, Dave Moerke, Steve Lewis, Art McGonigal. Managers were Chuck Resinger and Dave Kendra. The team was coached by Mr. Kiser, Mr. Hull, and Mr. Rankin.

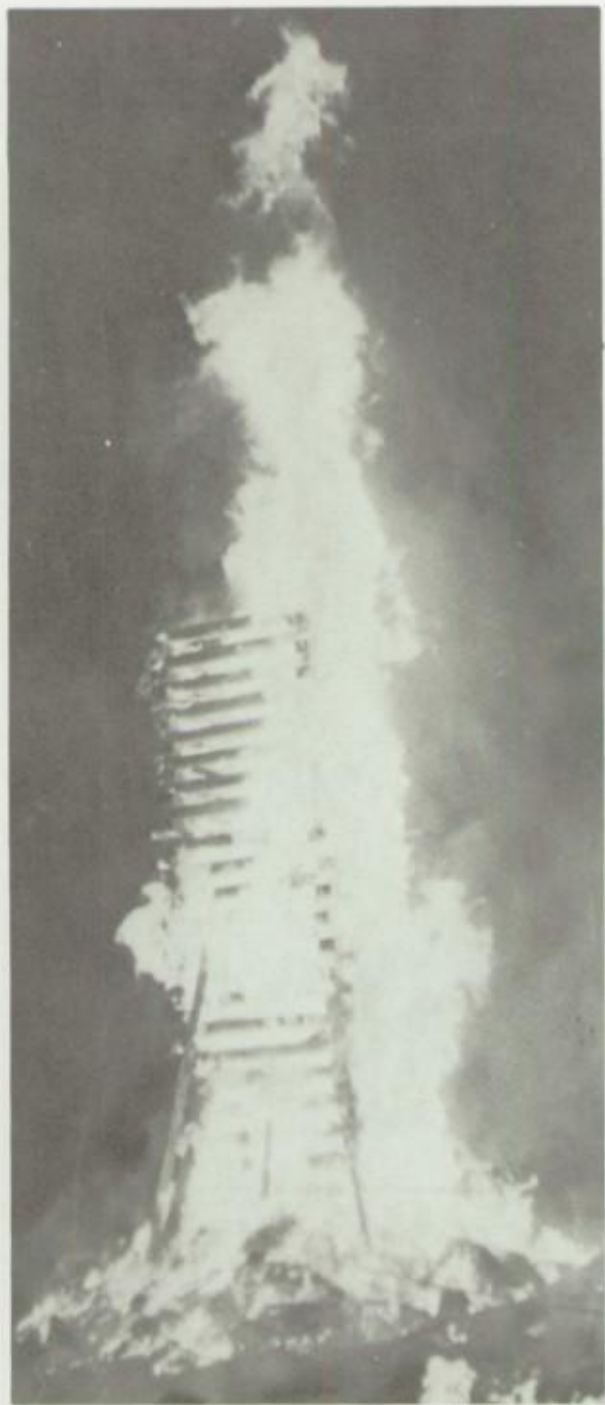

Bonfire Brightens Beauties, Battle, Bash

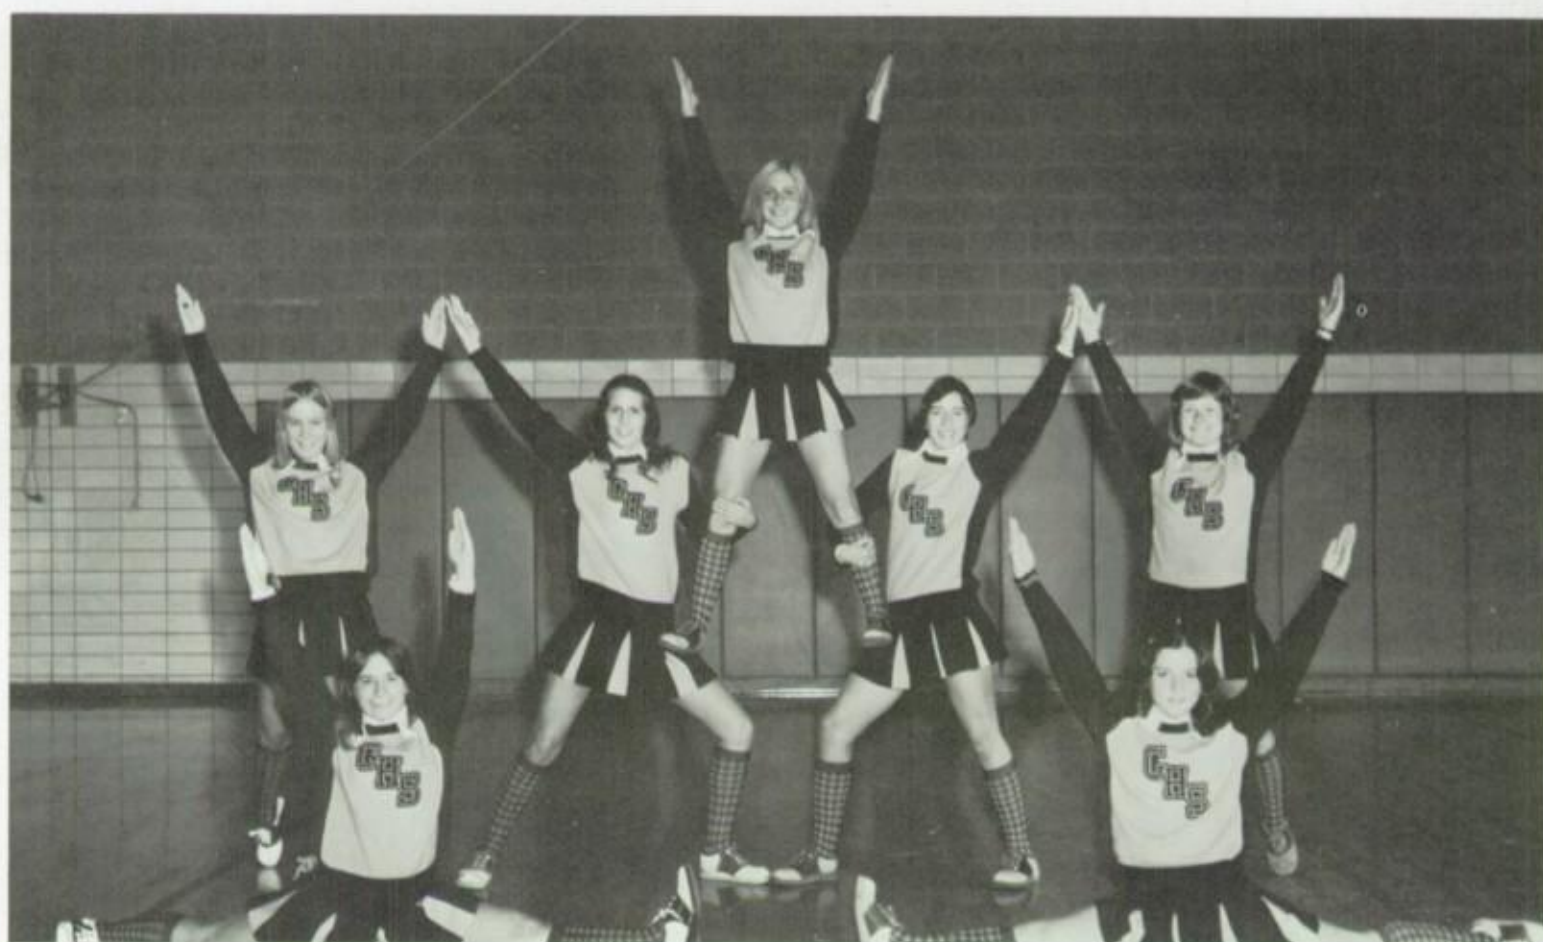

This year the senior guys built the most fantastic octagonal structured bonfire ever in the history of GHS. All the work these guys put into this was prematurely lit and destroyed by arsonists. In order to preserve the Homecoming festivities, not only the school but the townspeople joined together and rebuilt a complete bonfire in one day. Our sincerest thanks go out to Mr. Kusich and Mr. and Mrs. Stuck for keeping the spirits alive throughout the day.

Crowned the following night as the 1974 GHS Homecoming Queen was Mary Jo Trimble. Her court included Sis McGonigal, Terri Stuck, Wendy Dawes, and Patty Weaver.

The varsity football cheerleaders this year included (split) Kathy Burt, Cathy Mullaney, (standing) Kathy Homan, Lori Stewart, Caren Crash, Jane Gosnell, (top) Penny Huston. The Supreme Singers Crash, Huston, and Mullaney were accepted quite well. This is only a fraction of their duties; many hours of summertime fun were devoted to practice, as well as time after school. They provided entertainment for detention hall on many a night. All this work was apparent, not only by their performance during games, but by the final football record. The junior varsity cheerleaders were (left to right, bottom) Patty Knapp, Molly Doddo, Cheryl Babcock, (middle) Sandy Lysek, Michelle McClimans, Cindy Rowe, Lori Moss (top) Kathy Wolff.

Intramural Interest Increases

Last year was a first for girls track. They didn't have any official meets, but some of the more devoted traveled to an AAU meet in Westminster. Mary McDonald, Mary Carol Forbes, Cathy McConnell, Marilyn Galekovic are the seniors who were victorious at Westminster and then traveled to Latrobe. There these four took third in the 880 relay. Mr. Rankin took on the duties as coach. Last year's gym show demonstrated many fine gymnastic abilities. Floor exercise, modern dance, tumbling, balance beam, parallel bars, rings, high bar, and trampoline were all in evidence. The gym show is an event sponsored every other year.

Season's record 9-8

Despite the various odors coming from the locker room, the girls basketball team bounced through its setbacks and tallied a winning 9-8 season. Senior Katie Mechenbier led the team in scoring with 153 points. The juniors promise a good season next year. Marcia Mincer pulled down 149 rebounds as well as gathering 25 assists. Janet McMinn had the best free throw percentage, shooting 70 percent from the line. The best hustler on the court was Sandy Mayer. Other seniors finishing up their careers were Ann Simpson, Wendy Dawes, manager Alice Lekon, and timer Kirste Carlson.

HARDWOOD HEROES HIGHLY HELD

This year's varsity basketball team was one of the finest in recent years, posting many marks which fell short of only one former squad — the 1965-66 team which was the best ever at GHS.

The 1974-75 team opened the season with nine straight wins, one short of the school record. The 18 wins were the second best total ever, just behind the 20-2 mark of the 1965-66 club. The 1459 points were the second most ever scored and the defensive total of 1150 points allowed was the third best ever.

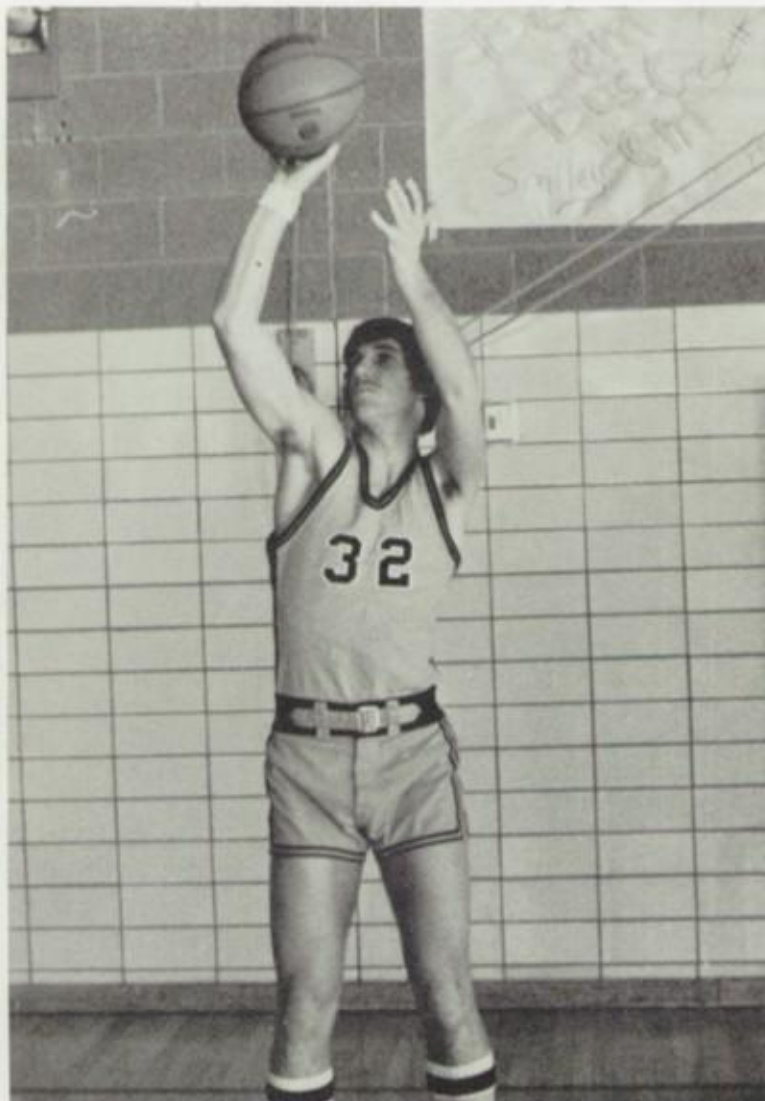

Individually, the leader was senior center Mike Morgus. For the second year in a row he was the team's leading scorer and rebounder, this season notching 414 points and grabbing 343 stray shots. A three-year starter, Mike's career totals show over 800 points scored and nearly 750 rebounds.

Other seniors contributed largely to the team's success. Guard Chuck Surano was the best shooter from the floor, averaging 53%. Don Boliver was the top free-throw shooter with an 81% mark, while Wayne Fagley's 123 assists fell just short of the school record of 135. Bill Rickert was third in scoring and rebounding, but he was perhaps the finest defensive player on the team and his leadership on the floor was the key to many close wins.

Planning pep assemblies, decorating lockers and locker rooms, making signs and announcements, and attending practices are a few activities in which the cheerleaders participate. From left to right the varsity cheerleaders are: (front) Kathy Burt, (middle) Kathy Homan, Cindi McWhirter, Terry Brennan (back) Dacia DeTullio, Sharon Boykan, captain, and Kathy Emmett. Missing from the picture is Terri Stuck.

MAT MARVELS MASH MANY MIGHTIES

Despite losing two matches for the first time since 1970, the wrestling team still had an outstanding season. The schedule was tougher than ever before, with powerful Shaler, Seneca Valley, and Fairview replacing traditional, but weaker, opponents.

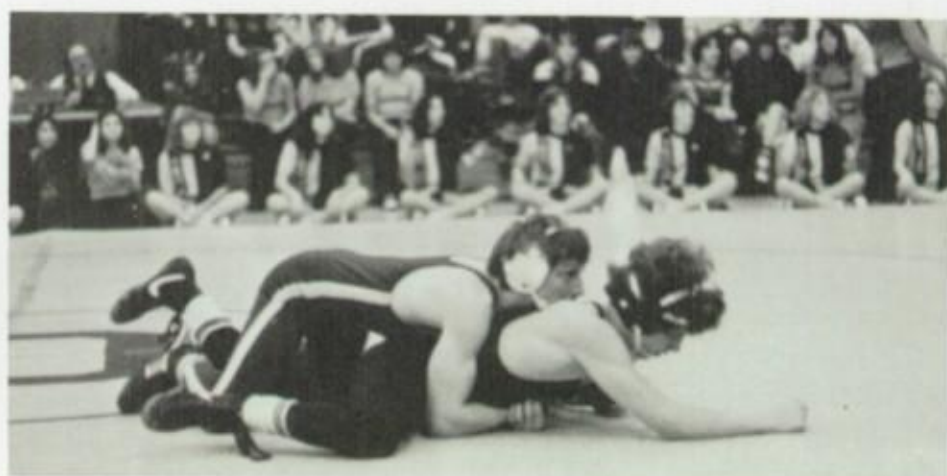

Senior co-captain Ed Stitt was a strong spot all year in the Trojan line-up. Splitting his season between the 138 and 132-pound classes, Ed finished second at Kenston and entered the section tournament with a fine 16-2 record.

Despite a bout with mononucleosis, Ron Brown still made a contribution to the team. Wrestling at 126 pounds, he entered the section tournament with a record of 5-3. His most exciting moment came in the Shaler match, when his dramatic pin rocketed the Trojans back into contention.

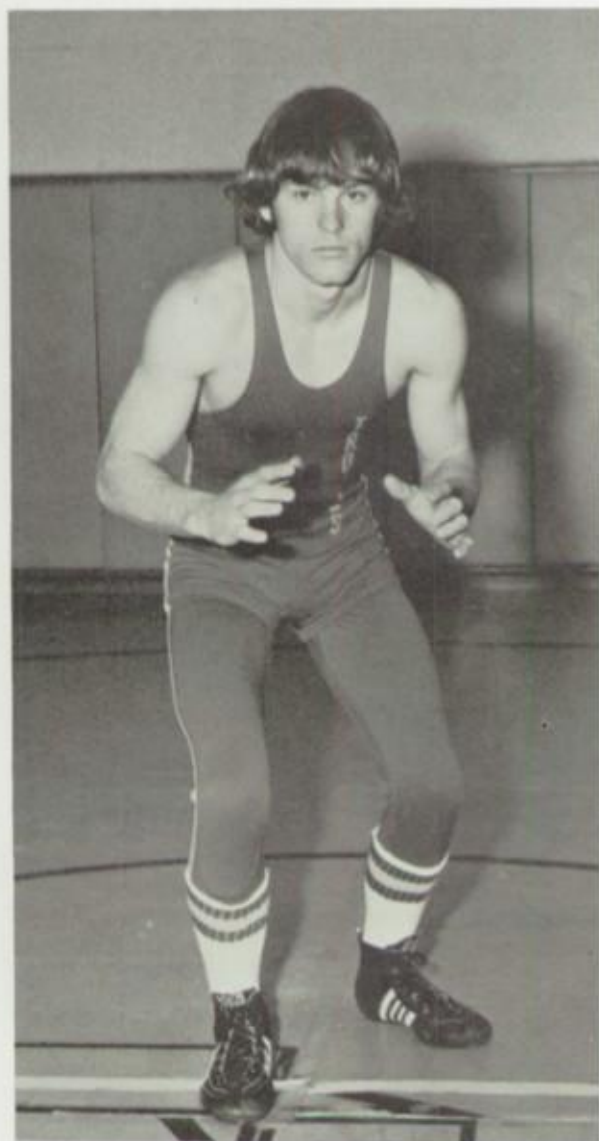

Randy Rembold did well in his first season as a varsity wrestler. The 145-pound senior finished the dual-match season at 12-6, with his biggest win coming in the Reynolds match.

Mark Shimshock was the only Trojan grappler besides Steve Riley to finish the regular season undefeated. Despite missing some matches due to illness, Mark finished at 15-0 and added a second Kenston Tournament championship to his collection.

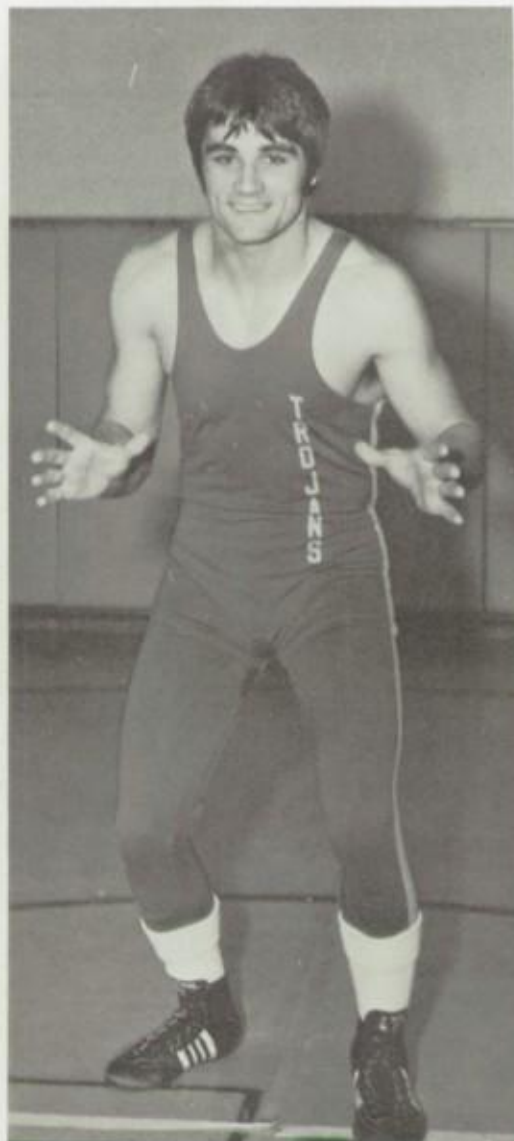

Greenville won the Section 4-B team championship with 138 points. Individual section champions were: John Petrarca, Ed Stitt, Mark Shimshock, and Norm Walker. Also qualifying for the District 10 tournament were: Paul Moss, Paul Marini, Jim Bollenbacher, Denny Stephens, Tracy Ballock, and Steve Riley.

Once again the J.V. wrestling team gave Trojan mat fans cause to hope for the future. The young grapplers ran their record to 11-2 and posted an exhibition win over Fairview. The top team scorer was Bruce Hovis with 41 points, followed by Denny Stephens with 39. Other J.V. stars were Todd Bollenbacher and Bob Forbes with 33 apiece.

State Champion Steve Riley

It is rare when an athlete comes along with talents enough to merit state-wide attention as a junior. Such an athlete is Steve Riley.

In his junior year Steve was nearly perfect. He won the Kenston Christmas Tournament in the 185-pound weight class, went through the dual match season undefeated, and copped Section and District championships with a perfect record. In the regional tournament he suffered his only loss of the season, a one-point heartbreaker in the finals, but came back strong the next week to win the state championship in the 185-pound class.

This year wrestling Unlimited, Steve once again won the Kenston Tournament and ended the dual match season with a perfect 17-0 slate.

Senior wrestling cheerleaders Cathy Mullaney, captain, Sis McGonigal, Penny Huston, and Caren Crash led the matmen through a winning season. Assisting in the effort were juniors Julie Perrotti, Sandy Mayer, and Gretchen Wolff. Adding to the pep assembly excitement were many unusual skits, the majority of them stemming from the unusual mind and mouth of Caren Crash. Cheering for the J.V.'s were Cheryl Babcock, Cindy Rowe, Michelle McClimans, Kathy Wolff, Cindy Hughes, Laurie Stull, Jill Johnson, and Tammy Emmett.

Striders Stretch Cinder Strings

Last year's seniors Wayne Peterson, Ed Bancroft, Lee Richards, Tim Brown, Bob Baskin, Don Achenbach, Mike Matter, Don Manes, and Scott Smiley won the District 10 championships for the third year in a row. Outstanding in the victories featured two of this year's seniors; Mike Rissell and Steve Riley. The team was coached by Mr. Kokoski, Mr. Hull, and Mr. McElhinny.

With a great effort from a team full of talented runners, jumpers, and throwers, the track team was boosted along to an 8-1 season and clinched their third District Ten title. Under Coach Kokoski, the team had two state champions in Mike Matter and Mike Rissell. Matter was the first athlete ever to place first in the javelin throw two years in a row, this past year with a hurl of 215 ft. Rissell placed first in the 330 intermediate hurdles and Lee Richards fifth in his events, the 100 and 220 yard dashes. The team is losing some fine athletes, but many are returning for another season this year, including state winner Rissell and 880-relay members Stephens and Shimshock.

Being number one after having to beat every other runner in the state is a real accomplishment, and last spring Mike Rissell prided himself and GHS by placing first in the 330 intermediate hurdles competition at the State Track Meet at Penn State. Mike was seeded first in the event because he was the only runner in the state who recorded a time of under forty seconds. Not only was Mike rewarded with a medal and a new track record, but he will also be returning this season for a try at topping his own record and helping the GHS team along to another winning season.

Golfers Grab Green Glory

Last year's linksmen pitched and putted their way to a 14-4 season record, the school's best since the 1968 campaign which saw two golfers in the state finals. Leading the way was junior Chris Homan with a scoring average of 80.6 strokes per 18 holes. The only other returning letterman is Jim McInturf, who averaged 91 strokes a round last year.

As a team the squad outpointed the opponents 190 to 80 and took an eighth place finish in the District 10 meet.

Senior Bill Read won the Ambassador Award and took the team point honors with 32½.

Say not the struggle nought availeth,
The labor and the wounds are vain,
The enemy faints not, nor faileth
And as things have been they remain.
If hopes were dupes, fears may be liars;
It may be, in yon smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers,
And, but for you, possess the field.
For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
Far back, through creeks and inlets making,
Comes silent, flooding in, the main.
And not by eastern windows only,
When daylight comes, comes in the light,
In front, the sun climbs slow, how slowly,
But westward, look, the land is bright.
